

West of Scotland Housing Association - New CEO

Simon Fitzpatrick

Currently chief executive of Blackwood Homes and Care, Simon was an outstanding candidate in a particularly strong shortlist. He will be taking over the chief executive role at WSHA from Brian Gannon, who will be retiring in Spring 2025.

Simon has spent the last ten years as commercial development director and latterly, chief executive at Blackwood. Prior to that he held senior roles in the third and private sector in Asset Management. Simon has a post-graduate Diploma in Housing Studies and is a chartered member of the CIH.