

Hebridean Housing Partnership's New Development is Now Complete

Hebridean Housing Partnership has successfully completed the final phase of it's Leverburgh site on the Isle of Harris

The final phase added six additional homes, resulting in a total of twelve residences at Lèana an t-Sruith. With construction completed, Hebridean Housing Partnership is now working to ensure the homes are allocated to those who need them most and celebrating full occupancy in the near future.

