

A New Dolly Parton's Imagination Library in G15

The social landlords of Drumchapel have teamed up to launch a new initiative across all of G15. Druncog, which comprises Drumchapel Housing Co-Operative, Cernach, Pineview and Kingsridge Cleddans Housing Associations, has launched its own Dolly Parton's Imagination Library. This provides free books, monthly, to children under 5 years old living within the G15 postcode area.

The Associations have combined to finance this.

Kingsridge Cleddans director, Daniel Wilson, stated: "We were delighted to see so many residents of the community in attendance and to help fuel the passion for reading in our young tenants. Literacy skills are a key area that we would like to help develop across the community, and learning to read young will help this next generation in developing these skills."

Susan McDonald MBE, Chairperson of Cernach HA said "It's a great opportunity for us to give back to the community and we're delighted to support all the families in the area - no matter whether they live in socially rented homes, private lets or owner-occupied homes – it means all kids are treated equally."

We are sharing this to make others aware of this initiative, and we are happy to give advice to any that may be interested.

