

Spire View Housing Association

In August, the Royston Community Energy Project proudly celebrated its second anniversary, marking a significant milestone in supporting the local community. Since its launch, our in-house energy advice team has provided essential assistance to over 1000 individuals in Royston, helping them navigate the complexities of household energy management.

