

Dalmuir Park's Chief Executive is Retiring.

Dalmuir Park Housing Association (DPHA) Chief Executive Anne Marie Brown will step down from her role next year. Anne Marie took up the position in January 2020, described the role as the fulfilment of her career ambition. Returning to West Dunbartonshire, where she grew up and worked for most of her life, she led the organisation through some of its most challenging years.

Just three months into her leadership, DPHA faced the onset of the COVID-19 pandemic, followed by the cost-of-living crisis and the loss of a much-loved colleague. Anne Marie said these events highlighted the strength of the organisation and the Dalmuir community, noting the spirit of support and solidarity that carried DPHA through difficult times.

Anne Marie added that she hoped her leadership style and the changes she helped implement had a lasting impact on services and the lives of those in the Dalmuir community and wishes her successor all the best.

