

The Herald Society AWARDS 2017

in association with

CELEBRATING 10 YEARS!

We are delighted to be supporting The Herald Society Awards 2017, to celebrate dedication, imagination and more importantly the vital impact of Scotland's public and third sectors for the last 10 years.

evh are proud to be sponsoring the Unsung Hero Award which will be given to the individual who in the judge's opinion best fits the definition of "unsung" hero or heroine. This category will embrace entries for members of the community, or people working in the public voluntary sector in Scotland.

“Eamonn Connolly, Director, EVH said, “Once again, we are delighted to be associated with these prestigious awards; which celebrate those wonderful people and institutions which give selflessly for the betterment of their fellow citizens.”
