

All change at Yorkhill

Marion Menabney retired as Director at Yorkhill Housing Association after 43 years service, making her one of the longest serving Chief-executive in social housing.

Marion was succeeded by Tony Mallaghan. On receiving the job Tony said “He was delighted to have this great opportunity to join an excellent housing association which is such an important part of the community of Yorkhill.”